AGE IS A STATE OF MIND: How can you stay young at heart, mind, & spirit, and get the most out of life? PRAY - Thank God for the gift of each new day. Seek to recognize your gifts and use them in all you do. NEVER STOP LEARNING - Just as weight lifting is to your muscles, learning is to your brain. It keeps you young and makes you feel alive and engaged in life. KEEP LAUGHING - Humor can be found in most situations if you look for it. Learn to laugh at yourself. Humor reduces stress; lightens the load and keeps you young at heart. SET GOALS - With out goals, you switch from fast forward to stop, or even in reverse in your life and work. Stretching yourself keeps you feeling strong & enthusiastic. STEP OUT OF YOUR COMFORT ZONE - Trying new things helps you stay out of a rut. The comfort zone can be a danger zone because you are not growing while in it, you're stagnating or even declining.

Whether 25 or 85, you're only as young or old as you determine yourself to be. Stay engaged in life, live everyday to the fullest, and continue to learn about yourself and the world around you at every age.
